PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO AMEND COMPLAINT

Now comes the Plaintiff, JoAnn Pelletier (“Ms. Pelletier”), and respectfully requests that this Honorable Court permit her to file and serve the attached Amended Complaint for Injunctive Relief and Damages in compliance with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 15(a). In support thereof, Ms. Pelletier states that her original Complaint was filed on or about May 4, 2005, alleging copyright infringement as to Defendant Sandra Talbot (Count I), copyright infringement as to Defendant, Chitra Publications (Count II) false designation of origin as to Defendant Sandra Talbot (Count III), false designation of origin as to Defendant Chitra Publications (Count IV), unfair competition pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 93A as to Defendant, Sandra Talbot (Count V), and unfair competition pursuant to M.G.L., Chapter 93A as to Defendant Chitra Publications (Count VI).

The Defendant Talbot filed an Answer to the Plaintiff’s Complaint on October 12, 2005, participated in a scheduling conference on February 9, 2006, and filed her initial disclosure pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 26 on February 21, 2006. To date, the Defendant, Chitra Publications, has ignored the Plaintiff by failing to answer the original complaint, causing a default to be entered by this Court on October 13, 2005.

Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 15(a) states, in pertinent part:

“A party may amend the party’s pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served...”

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff hereby moves to amend her original complaint and to serve the same upon all defendants.

109. Despite Plaintiff Pelletier's notification to Defendant Meunier that Plaintiff Pelletier is the author and the owner of the Copyrighted Design and of the Copyrighted Pattern, Defendant Meunier has continued to attribute authorship and ownership of the Copyrighted

Design and Copyrighted Pattern to Defendant Talbot in Defendant Meunier's various publications which are sold over the Internet and in various retail stores.

110. Defendant Meunier's false designation of origin is likely to cause consumer confusion as to the authorship and ownership of the Copyrighted Pattern and Copyrighted Design.

111. The false designations of origin as well as Defendant Meunier's entire course of conduct have caused and continue to cause great and incalculable damage to Plaintiff Pelletier. Unless the Court restrains Defendant Meunier from further false designations of the Copyrighted Design, Plaintiff Pelletier will suffer irreparable injury and harm for which she has no adequate remedy at law.

"sew" many SPOOLS

© 1993 Jo Ann Pelletier - all rights reserved

Please read all instructions carefully.

The SPOOLS are "courthouse step" log cabin blocks.
Finished block size is 3 3/4" square (4 1/4" including 1/4" seams).
You will be making 96 "spools" blocks - 8 across x 12 down.
"Scant" 1/4" seams are very important.

CUT -

THREAD "center" - various plaids, strips, or prints
Cut 96, 2 3/4" squares

LOGS - all "logs" are cut 3/4" wide

BACKGROUND/muslin logs - amounts are for entire quilt

#1 log = 3/4" wide x 2 3/4" long - CUT 192

#3 log = 3/4" wide x 3 1/4" long - CUT 192

#5 log = 3/4" wide x 3 3/4" long - CUT 192

SPOOL logs - for EACH block cut the following - cut 2 of EACH of log #2, #4, #6 (for each block).

Remember, there are 96 blocks.

#2 log = 3/4" wide x 3 1/4" long - CUT 2

#4 log = 3/4" wide x 3 3/4" long - CUT 2

#6 log = 3/4" wide x 4 1/4" long - CUT 2

SASHING/muslin - cut 212 (total amount needed)

Cut 1 1/2" wide x 4 1/4" long

CORNERSTONES - various black prints

Cut 117, 1 1/2" squares

BORDER 1 - CUT 6, 1 1/4" x 40" strips (or width of fabric selvage to selvage)

BORDER 2 - CUT 6, 3 1/4" x 40" strips (or width of fabric selvage to selvage)

BINDING - CUT 6, 2 1/2" x 40" strips (or width of fabric selvage to selvage)

Page 2

CONSTRUCTION - all seams are sewn with "scant" 1/4" seams. This is very important. If your seam allowance is too wide, the block will not measure the correct size. You will check the size of the block AFTER each "ROUND" (see at end of step 1 how to do this).

STEP 1 - "ROUND 1"

to the 2 3/4" square "THREAD center", add logs #1 (3/4" x 2 3/4" background fabric) to EACH SIDE. Press towards the logs.
then add #2 logs (3/4" x 3 1/4" spool fabric) and press towards the logs.

IMPORTANT - check the size of the block with your "square ruler". The block should measure 3 1/4" sq. Trim if necessary to get rid of any excess over 3 1/4" sq. If the block measures less than the correct size, your seams are too wide.

- ROUND 1 = 3 1/4" SQUARE -

STEP 2 -

Add logs #3 - (3/4" x 3 1/4" background fabric), press
Add logs #4 (3/4" x 3 3/4" spool fabric), press
ROUND 2 = 3 3/4" square

STEP 3 -

Add logs #5 (3/4" x 3 3/4" background fabric), press
Add logs #6 (3/4" x 4 1/4" spool fabric), press
ROUND 3 = 4 1/4" square

ASSEMBLY -

Lay the blocks down - 8 rows across x 12 rows down as the diagram below shows. Leave a space and place the SASHING (1 1/2" x 4 1/4" strips) and the 1 1/2" CORNERSTONE blocks as pictured.

Stitch together by rows -

ROW 1 - CORNERSTONES & SASHING, press to sashing.

ROW 2 - SASHING & "SPOOL" block, press to sashing.

Continue till rows are done.

Stitch the ROWS together.

BORDER 1 - cut 2 of the strips to fit top and bottom of quilt - should be about 39 1/2" (check the size of your quilt top). Stitch, press toward outside. Stitch the 4 remaining strips together - measure, cut and add to sides (should be about 60"). Press

BORDER 2 - Top and bottom of quilt should be about 41" wide (remember, check to see what yours actually measures).. Cut 2 border strips to fit (or piece strips together if needed). Stitch and press. Stitch the 4 remaining strips together - measure, cut and add to sides (should be about 66"). Press

batting & backing.

Quilt or tie.

(recommendation -
"stitch in the ditch" quilting)

Add binding

Thank you for purchasing my pattern.
I hope you enjoyed the process of making this "very UNIQUE" quilt.

Certified Article Number7160 3901 9844 9045 8675*SENDER'S RECORDRe: Copyright Infringement

Dear Ms. Talbot and Ms. Meunier:

Please be advised that this office represents JoAnn Pelletier, of Longmeadow, Massachusetts. JoAnn is the owner of certain copywritten material as further described in this letter. It has come to our attention that you are using JoAnn's copywritten material consisting of a quilt pattern which you have called "Just Spooling Around" (the "Protected Design" or the "Pattern") without authority.

As you may know, by federal law, the owner of a copyright has the exclusive right to reproduce and distribute the copyrighted work. Accordingly, a validly copyrighted work is infringed when unauthorized reproductions of the copyrighted work have been made. JoAnn taught her spool Protected Design in quilting classes beginning in 1993. She disclosed the Pattern for the purpose of teaching her students. She made it clear to all of her students that they were not authorized to copy and distribute the Pattern, as it was her work of artistic expression. She did authorize each student to use the Pattern as a learning tool and to make a quilt for her own use and enjoyment. Ms. Talbot threatened to distribute the Protected Design forcing JoAnn to disengage her from her class in September, 2000. In 2003, Ms. Talbot in fact distributed the Protected Design to Chitra Publications, Inc. representing it as her own, in violation of federal copyright law.

Accordingly, demand is made of Ms. Talbot as follows:

1. JoAnn demands that Ms. Talbot cease and desist claiming ownership of the Pattern and Protected Design.
2. JoAnn demands that Ms. Talbot you cease and desist distributing, copying and reproducing the Pattern and Protected Design.
3. JoAnn demands that Ms. Talbot cause to be published in Chitra Publications' next issue of Quiltworks Today and online the following written apology for a period of six months verbatim displayed in font size and legibility equal to that of the entire publication:

Sandra T. Talbot, has falsely claimed ownership of the "Just Spooling Around" protected design without authority of its rightful owner. Sandra T. Talbot apologizes for the use of the intellectual property of JoAnn Pelletier of Longmeadow, Massachusetts. JoAnn Pelletier is the creator and owner of the pattern for "Just Spooling Around".

4. JoAnn demands damages in the total amount of $50,000.00.

This demand is supported by the following:

Copyright Infringement.

Federal law at 17 USC §102(a) states that copyright protection subsists, in accordance with this title, in original works of authorship fixed in any tangible medium of expression, now known or later developed, from which they can be perceived, reproduced, or otherwise communicated, either directly or with the aid of a machine or device. Works of authorship include the following categories: (1) literary works; (2) musical works, including any accompanying words; (3) dramatic works, including any accompanying music; (4) pantomimes and choreographic works; (5) pictorial, graphic, and sculptural works; (6) motion pictures and other audiovisual works; (7) sound recordings; and (8) architectural works.

JoAnn owns the copyright to the pictorial, graphic work consisting of the Pattern to all of the quilts which are her original works of artistic expression and protected as her intellectual property. JoAnn's spool quilt pattern is one that she designed independently over a period of many years. As soon as she sketched and wrote the Pattern on paper, her copyright subsists. Her documentary evidence supports that she wrote the Pattern many years ago. As the copyright owner of this artistic work, JoAnn has the exclusive right to reproduce and to distribute the Pattern and Protected Design (17 USC § 106). Because Ms. Talbot and Chitra have published, reproduced and distributed the Pattern and the Protected Design without JoAnn's authorization, you have both infringed JoAnn's copyright upon publication of the Protected Design and Pattern in Chitra Publications, Inc. Quiltworks Today. October/November, 2003 issue at pages 26 and 27 (the "magazine").

Ms. Christiane Meunier

Subsequent to that unauthorized publication, you recently published, reproduced and distributed the Protected Design in a book entitled A Few of My Favorite Scrap Quilts also published by Chitra Publications, Inc. (the "book"). In fact, it is featured on the cover of the book, on page 3 in the book and the Pattern is duplicated in the book at pages 11 and 15 in violation of federal copyright law. You, Ms. Talbot, have held yourself out to be the owner of the artistic expression manifested in the Protected Design in both the magazine and the book when in fact you are not. You have published your photograph with JoAnn's quilt Pattern, falsely claiming credit for its design. You falsely informed Chitra Publications that you were the owner of the Protected Design and that no one else had any rights to the Protected Design, when you knew that to be false.

Not only have your actions been egregious, insulting and personally cruel, but you have violated federal and state law. Both you and Chitra have taken action in reckless disregard for the true owner's copyright notwithstanding actual notice of such right.

Chitra Publications, Inc. has reproduced, duplicated, published and distributed the Protected Design in violation of federal copyright law.

Chitra may attempt to claim that it relied to its detriment on the false claims of Ms. Talbot. Unfortunately for Chitra, detrimental reliance is no defense to copyright infringement. Accordingly, demand is made of Chitra as follows:

1. JoAnn demands that Chitra cease and desist from selling the book, remove the book immediately from the shelves of its retailers and from the Internet.
2. JoAnn demands that Chitra publish the written apology in its next magazine issue and on the Internet exactly as demanded above.
3. JoAnn demands that Chitra remove the magazine from the website and cease and desist sales of that issue of the magazine.
4. JoAnn demands damages in the total amount of $50,000.00.

The magazine and book, although informational, are commercial. The publications developed and published by Chitra Publishing, Inc. are primarily for the purpose of generating revenue for Chitra and promoting products used by quilters for financial gain. Chitra is hoping that consumers will be impressed with JoAnn's Protected Design quilt and buy the magazine or the book and all of the quilting materials from the advertisers of Chitra and from those retail outlets which sell Chitra's publications. Therefore, the publications are a form of commercial speech for the purpose of influencing consumers to buy it's goods. It appears that the publications are adequately disseminated to the relevant purchasing public, since the publications are available over the Internet. Because the Chitra publications are available on-line at Chitra's website www.quilttownusa.com, it could be argued that consumers interested in purchasing quilting products would be likely go to the Chitra website, and encounter the Chitra publications. Thus, therefore, the Internet constitutes sufficient distribution and the Chitra website is a commercial publication.

The statements made in the publications are false and misleading. Ms. Talbot holds herself out as the owner of the Pattern and Protected Design when she is not. JoAnn shall prove that the statements made are literally false and as such can do nothing but mislead and confuse consumers.

JoAnn will not condone nor ignore this infringement and intends to hold both Ms. Talbot and Chitra Publications, Inc. legally accountable. JoAnn will seek fair and reasonable compensation for the improper use of her Protected Design and damages for infringement. Accordingly, JoAnn reiterates the demands set forth in this letter. Should either of you fail to comply with the demands completely and in a timely fashion in the sole opinion of JoAnn, JoAnn will pursue her legal remedies to the full extent of the law. Absent complete compliance with the demands made herein, JoAnn will initiate litigation in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts for statutory damages, actual damages equivalent to income received and sales generated by both parties as a result of this infringement and for all other rights and remedies available by all applicable state or federal law. Nothing herein shall be interpreted as a limitation of the rights and remedies available to JoAnn.

Please do not contact or attempt to contact JoAnn Pelletier. All communication regarding this matter must be made through the undersigned. Please confirm immediately upon receipt of this letter your prompt compliance with the demands herein.

Very truly yours,

Just Spooling Around

Sandra Touchette Talbot of Longmeadow, Massachusetts, loves making scrappy quilts. She used lots of plaid and striped fabrics when creating "Just Spooling Around" (54 1/2" square). Sandra says her plan was to make a wallhanging, but she had so much fun making the blocks that it turned into a quilt of 100 spools. The quilt was expertly machine quilted in the ditch by Jan Austin Gilbert.

❖ Introduction ❖

While looking through past issues of Quilting Today and Traditional Quiltworks magazines for inspiration, I noticed that it is always the same quilts that jump out at me. They are the quilts I loved when we first chose them to be in the magazine, and years later, all I need is to flip through the pages and catch a glimpse of them to fall in love with them again. Usually they're scrap quilts. I enjoy making scrap quilts as much as I do looking at them.

Scrap quilts originally were a tribute to our ancestors' ability to turn scarcity into beauty. They transformed their lack of material into a glorious celebration of life. With the wealth of fabric available today, scrap quilts can be more expressive than ever. Using lots of different fabrics can give quilts a visual depth and range of texture that is more difficult to attain with fewer fabrics. "Myths of Avalon," one of the patterns in this book, wouldn't be quite as interesting if it were a red and white quilt. But as it's shown here, your eyes travel around the surface of the quilt, resting in a certain area and studying others. It's a wonder that so many different elements can come together as a beautiful and harmonious unit.

Scrap quilts are also a lot of fun to make. As long as you have fabric in your stash, you never have to worry about running out of a particular one late at night. And if your stash is like mine, you're home free for the rest of your life! Working with a lot of different fabrics gives you the freedom to be daring and to us a little bit of that lime green that is so "not you." Scrap quilts are also very forgiving; you don't have to have the perfect plan when starting out. If your design gets too bright, just start making more dark blocks. If it gets too dull, step up on the brights. As you go through the process of making a block or two at a time, there's usually time to balance things out. And you never get stuck having to make 32 more blocks exactly like the 16 you just made!

The 10 quilts in this book are a few of my favorite scrap quilts. I hope they inspire you to get your fabric out and start playing!

Happy quilting!

Christiane
